

The One-Shelf Haunted Library

For the bookish renter with one shelf to spare.

Make a little space for October.

One shelf, a few books you already own, and a paper facade you can put away flat. Start by checking the space. The templates come later.

03 Your shelf, after dark

04 Measure the space

05 Gather the materials

06 Print one test first

07 Mount the front panel

08 Build the supports

09 Arrange the shelf

10 Find the light

11 Fix the awkward bits

12 The color facade

13 The low-ink facade

14 Two folding supports

15 Moths and bookmarks

16 A small reading record

17 Pack it flat

18 Make time for the project

19 Your shelf plan

20 Finish and references

Tap a section to jump. Use CONTENTS at the foot of any page to return. Type into the planning fields in a supporting PDF reader, then save your copy.

Your shelf, after dark.

45 cm

of clear shelf width

18 × 22 cm

finished front panel

Folds flat

for November

For the reader who wants the atmosphere of a dark little bookshop without redecorating the room. Keep your books, borrow the lamplight, and build the part that makes the corner feel different.